On Saturday we will Celebrate the life of Haylie Bro, RKOC Junior Kennel Club Member

Share the Sparkle for Haylie Bro

In May of 2022, Haylie attended her home club (RKOC)'s dog show, which ended up being her last. She was all smiles and mingled her way through the benching area with her family and friends, while placing her sunglasses on a multitude of dogs and taking their photos. Haylie was able to participate in Junior's conformation, where she won best overall, and also stepped into the breed ring with her Finnish Lapphund, Mac. On that weekend, there was nowhere else in the world that she would have wanted to be.

She was the junior handler with the pig-tails that we all watched grow up from Boston Terriers, to the young lady that proudly presented any breed that she could take the lead of. From the smallest of the small, to the biggest of the big, she was always up to the challenge to learn and grow as a handler. She could be found ringside clapping for everyone, or in her mentor's set-ups soaking up information, experiences and making memories. Haylie was always a bright light at every show and in the lives of many. In June of 2022, we lost Haylie far too soon at the age of seventeen.

"Do what makes you happy." - Haylie Bro

Join us Saturday, May 20th, 2023 dressed in Haylie's favourite colours
(yellow and blue) and take a lap for Haylie.

More details to follow in the judging schedule

Sunday's shows are dedicated in memory of Margaret Stewardson, RKOC Life Member

In July of 1985, Margaret acquired her first Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier. She was encouraged to take "Shawnie" to obedience classes. The astute instructors realized he was registered, and encouraged Margaret to train Shawnie with the hopes of entering obedience trials. Shawnie learned quickly and they both enjoyed the classes, so she continued.

At her first obedience trial a woman approached her and asked "why is that dog in obedience – he should be in the conformation ring!" And so started Margaret's love of competing in several dog related competitions including conformation, obedience, agility, scent hurdle racing and rally obedience. Margaret and her dogs were also active visiting schools, hospitals, Christmas parties and nursing homes.

As a breeder, Margaret's first concern was always temperament. She heavily scrutinized everyone who was interested in acquiring one of her puppies.

Margaret was a life member of the Regina Kennel and Obedience Club. She put many titles on her dogs and in later years continued to compete in rally and obedience – all while using a walker. She was an inspiration to many of us and was admired by her competitors. Margaret continued to train her dogs until shortly before her passing. We will miss her gregarious personality. Her love of the Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier breed was second to none. Rest in Peace Margaret.
