POTLUCK BBQ!!!

On Saturday, July 16, 2011

We will follow the day of Rally-O fun with a bbq. What better way to end a day of Rallying then to spend it at a BBQ where your dogs are not only invited but encouraged to take part.

Leaps N' Bounds will be providing Hamburgers and Hotdogs and we ask you to bring an item to share for the potluck portion of our dinner.

We will be having dunking for hotdogs, musical mats and relay races for the dogs.

RSVP

Attending: Y or N (circle)

Circle: Hamburger or Hotdog

Something to share: (Appy? Salad? Etc?)

Note: perhaps you will get a sneak peek at some new things coming to CARO!!!

Notice to Competitors – General Information

This is a titling event under CARO rules and regulations. CARO is open to all dogs being at least six (6) months of age, including purebred and mixed breeds, except bitches in season or dogs with injuries or illnesses which may cause the dog pain or great discomfort, or dogs exhibiting signs of aggression that threaten the safety of other dogs or humans.

An officiating Judge, and/or the Chairperson of the trial, may dismiss from the trial site any person subjecting the Judge or members or the organizing committee to abuse, whether that person is competing in the trial or not.

For more information go to www.canadianrallyo.ca

Chairperson: Sophie Budin

Email: Sophie.Budin@gmail.com

Phone: (604) 746-8142

The trial will be run in accordance with CARO rules and regulations – the judge will explain the rules for the event during the Judges briefing held immediately before it.

Dogs may compete in more than one level at the same trial, under the following provision. The final qualifying run for the first title must occur in the same trial as the legs for the next title.**

There will be qualifying ribbons awarded to each dog/handler team who achieves a score of 170 or better, you will also receive your dog's score card for each run you perform. A "Highest Qualifier in Class" rosette will also be offered at the completion of judging.

There shall be no refunds for entries withdrawn after the closing date, or in the event a dog and/or handler are dismissed from competition, regardless of the reason for such dismissal. However, refunds will be issued for dogs that come into heat or are injured, provided a veterinarian's certificate is received by the Trial Secretary one week prior to the trial.

Physically challenged handlers are encouraged to participate. Handlers shall provide the judge with a written description of how they intend to perform any of the course exercises with their entry form. For more information please contact Sophie.Budin@gmail.com, or check out www.canadianrallyo.ca for more clarification.

Dogs can be shown on a flat buckle, snap collar or plain harness. No choke, martingale, prong or shock collars, head halters or no-pull harnesses are allowed. Leashes should be made of fabric or leather and be long enough to provide adequate slack. Dogs at the advanced or excellent level are not required to compete with a collar.

Food as a reward is allowed at the Novice and Advanced level only, but cannot be used as a lure to help the dog complete an exercise. Handlers who plan to use food as a reward must indicate this to the judge prior to starting your round. Food must be carried in the handler's pocket opposite the dog and can only be present in the handler's hand in between exercises. Any petting, touching, or feeding that significantly interrupts the flow of performance shall be scored accordingly.

Class Descriptions:

Novice “A” – shall be for a dog/handler team that has not earned the Rally Novice (RN) title. As well, the handler must own the dog entered, or be a member of the owner’s household or immediate family; must not have previously handled a dog that has earned an AKC, CKC, or UKC obedience title (CD, CDX, UD), or a CARO or APDT Rally Excellent title or an Agility title from any recognized Agility Association, must not be a professional dog trainer or their assistant and must not be a judge or judge in training of CKC, AKC or UKC Obedience, Agility or Rally competitions.

Novice “B” – will be for dog/handler teams that have not earned the Rally Novice (RN) title or have earned the title within the last sixty (60) days but have not received a qualifying score in Rally Advance (RA). As well, any handler who has taken a dog to CKC, AKC or UKC Obedience, Agility or Rally Excellent title or is a professional dog trainer or their assistant or be a judge or judge in training of CKC, AKC or UKC Obedience, Agility or Rally competitions must compete in Rally Novice B Class.

Advanced “A” – shall be for a dog/handler team that have not earned the Rally Advanced (RA) title. As well, the handler must own the dog entered, or be a member of the owner’s household or immediate family. Must not have previously handled a dog that has earned an AKC, CKC, or UKC obedience title (CD, CDX, UD), or a CARO or APDT Rally Excellent title or an Agility title from any recognized Agility Association, must not be a professional dog trainer or their assistant. Must not be a judge or judge in training of CKC, AKC or UKC Obedience, Agility or Rally competitions.

Advanced “B” – will be for dog/handler teams that have not earned the Rally Advanced (RA) title or have earned the title within the last sixty (60) days but have not received a qualifying score in Rally Excellent (RE). As well, any handler who has taken a dog to CKC, AKC or UKC Obedience, Agility or Rally Excellent title or is a professional dog trainer or their assistant or be a judge or judge in training of CKC, AKC or UKC Obedience, Agility or Rally competitions must compete in Rally Advanced B Class.

Excellent – shall be for a dog/handler team that have earned the Rally Advanced (RA) title, but have not earned the Rally Excellent (RX) title. A handler must own the dog entered, or be a member of the owner’s household or immediate family.

Versatility - shall be for a dog/handler team that have earned the Rally Excellent (RE) title.

In order to attain a Rally Title, a dog must earn three (3) legs with scores of 170 or better, under at least two (2) different CARO approved judges. All dogs must be in Rally Obedience Competition at the Novice level.

A person may enter more than one dog in each class. No dog may be entered in both A & B levels at one trial. Move ups are allowed the day of the trial, from round 1 to round 2 of the next level. Entry into both rounds of the next level will be allowed only if space permits.

Facilities: The event will be held in outdoors in a public park. The venue offers ample parking, with plenty of area to walk dogs. There will be no food vendor on site so please pack a lunch but please join us for our potluck dinner. Please bring chairs, and appropriate shading for yourself and dogs. We have no control over the weather and the trial will go on, rain or shine. If we set up our tents close together, we can maximize shade...or shelter from the elements.
