All levels Judged by Marina Skoreiko of Edmonton, Alberta - CKC Scent Judge Letter from the Judge:

I am excited to be your Judge for this weekend.
Thank you to the American Staffordshire Terrier
Club of Canada for inviting me!

I have been involved in purebred dogs most of my life. Growing up we had Pekingese and Toy Poodles. We got our first Rottweiler in 2000, and I've bred Rottweilers under the "Ashenburg" prefix since 2004. I am proud to have produced many Champion and working title Rottweilers. I have titled my personal dogs in herding, obedience, rally, sprinters, conformation, and of course, scent detection. I have owner trained and handled a mother-daughter duo to OTCh titles, as well as 3 generations of #1 Rottweiler in Canada for Rally for 6 consecutive years. Posh, my 7 year old Rottweiler was the second Rottweiler in Canada to achieve the SDDA Master Championship title in scent detection. In 2015, we added Whippets to our home. We currently own 2 and are planning our first breeding for this Summer.

I am licensed to judge both CKC and SDDA scent detection trials. I hope you all have a wonderful experience this weekend and enjoy your time with your dog! Remember, if you aren't winning, you're learning and that is always good!
