The Lower Mainland Dog Fanciers of B.C. wish to caution all exhibitors and attendees that these trials are held in compliance with the Provincial and Local Health rules. Protocols for all visitors on the venue will wear a mask that covers the nose and mouth when indoors. Social Distancing will be followed in so far as feasible. The vaccine passport mandate is not in effect until the day (September 13, 2021) following these trials.

Each judge, trial superintendent and trial chairperson has flexibility in making sure the policies are adhered to, and timing of events is at their discretion. Some exhibitors may feel that we are too strict and other may share the opposite reaction that we are not strict enough. We are hoping to error on the side of safety without interfering in the spirit of the competitions.

There will be some area for limited seating but social distancing must be maintained for those not in your "bubble".

The Club, Judges, Volunteers, Cotonfield Dog Centre and Canadian Kennel Club, accept no responsibility for any illness or injury that may arise as a result of attending these events. If you have concerns about attending, please DO NOT enter or attend. We are going to try very hard to make this a safe enjoyable event for all concerned.

Ribbons and score sheet distribution will be at the judges/stewards as to the means of delivery. Crates are permitted inside the venue at assigned locations, however no exercise pens are permitted except for giant breeds.

Move ups are permitted. Day of trial entries are permitted (Hint: advance notice to BC Dog Shows is appreciated.)

Changes to Obedience Protocols

- The chair or table where the leash and other equipment is to be placed should be located at a convenient place determined by the judge but can be located in the ring or if not appropriate, just outside of the ring such that the handler can obtain the item without leaving the ring
- If a chair or table or any other surface is used to hold leashes, dumbbells, gloves or any other equipment owned by the handler, that surface must be sanitized immediately after use. Paper can be placed on the surface if sanitizing is not done but that paper must be removed immediately after use, disposed of appropriately and replaced ready for the next exhibitor
- If a rethrow of the dumbbell is required, the handler should be allowed to ask the dog to stay and the handler will go and pick up the dumbbell and return to where the dog was left. If the dog moves during this process, it will not be judged unless it is out of control
- For the article exercise in Utility, the handler can retrieve the articles to be scented from the article bag and put them on the 'article' chair.

8 REGULATIONS FOR PERFORMANCE & JUDGING

8.1.5 The judge must test each handler and dog separately (except for the Group Sit and Down exercise, where groups of dogs may be in the ring together).

8.10.1 At the conclusion of the judging of each class, judges are required to provide meaningfully marked individual scoresheets to each exhibitor. Scoresheets need not be handed out in the ring, but may be distributed to the exhibitor in any manner as decided by the individual club.

8.11.3 After all the scores for the class are recorded, the judge shall may call for all available dogs that have earned qualifying scores to be brought into the ring.

8.13.8 In the Novice Intermediate, Open and Utility classes, before the handler enters the ring a steward will take the they shall place the dumbbell, glove and articles on a chair in or place them where designated by the judge until required and upon completion of their routine the handler shall retrieve the dumbbell, glove and articles before exiting the ring. return them after the team exits the ring. The leash shall be placed by the handler in the same location taken from the handler as the dumbbell, glove and articles once they enter the ring. and will be returned before the handler leaves the ring. The handler shall retrieve the leash from the location designated by the judge before leaving the ring.

9 PRENOVICE CLASS

9.2.2 The judge will post the choice of a Group Sit or Down at least 30 minutes before the start of the class and not more than one hour before the start of the trial in a location available for viewing by all competitors. This location may be inside or outside if the trial is held indoors. In future assignments, judges are required to randomize their choice so that each is used approximately the same number of times.

9.6.3 In the Figure 8 exercise, the handler will stand with the dog sitting in heel position facing the judge, midway between the two stewards, who will stand cones at least 0.46m (18") high, chairs or similar inanimate objects placed about 3.66 m (12 ft) apart. The handler may go around either steward object first. On the judge's order, the handler, with the dog on a loose leash, shall go twice completely around the Figure 8 with one halt at the end of the exercise. The handler may give the dog a verbal command to sit.

9.7 Sit for Examination

9.7.4 The judge will approach the dog from the front and touch its head only. On the judge's order, the handler will return by walking around behind the dog to heel position.

9.9 Group Sit or Down Exercise

- 9.9.4 All dogs in the class that are eligible to compete in the group exercises may be judged separately or as part of a group after the completion of the individual exercises. I there is more than one dog competing in the group exercise, the dogs must be placed at least 2.44m (8') apart. In order to accommodate the distance requirement, there may be more than one group. A dog who fails any of the individual exercises is not eligible to compete. Will do so together. If, however there are more than eight dogs competing they will be split into groups of not more than eight.
- 9.9.5 Handlers will enter the ring with their dogs on leash and line up in a straight line in catalogue order, at least 1.22 m (4 ft) 2.44m (8 ft) apart, where the judge indicates. Handlers will place their armbands behind the dogs. They will leave the leash attached to the dog's collar, placing it at the dog's right side.

10 NOVICE CLASS

10.6 Heel on Leash & Figure 8

10.6.8 In the Figure 8 exercise, the handler will stand with the dog sitting in heel position facing the judge, midway between the two stewards, who will stand cones at least 0.46m (18") high, chairs or similar inanimate objects placed about 2.44 m (8 ft) apart. The handler may go around either steward object first. On the judge's order, the handler with the dog on a loose leash shall go twice completely around the Figure 8 with at least one halt during and another at the end of the exercise.

10.7 Stand for Examination

10.7.3 On completion of the Figure 8 exercise, the handler will remove the leash and give place it to a steward, who will place it on the judge's table. on a chair designated by the judge. If necessary the dog may be guided gently by the collar.

Lower Mainland Dog Fanciers of B.C. All Breed Obedience and Rally Trials

10.7.5 The judge will approach the dog from the front and touch the dog's head, withers and hindquarters only. On the judge's order, the handler will return by walking around behind the dog to heel position.

10.9 Recall

10.9.7 On completion of the Recall, the handler may ask the dog to stay or may guide the dog gently by the collar in order to retrieve the leash from the chair previously designated by the judge and put it on the dog before leaving the ring.

10.10 Group Sit and Down Exercises

- 10.10.4 All dogs in the class that are eligible to compete in the group exercises may be judged separately or as part of a group after the completion of the individual exercises. If there is more than one dog competing in the group exercise, the dogs must be placed at least 2.44m (8') apart. In order to accommodate the distance requirement, there may be more than one group. A dog who fails any of the individual exercises is not eligible to compete. will do so together. If, however, there are more than eight dogs competing, they will be split into groups of not more than eight.
- 10.10.5 When the same judge judges the Novice A, B and/or C classes, the classes may be combined provided the total number of dogs eligible to compete in the group does not exceed eight can be placed at least 2.44 m (8 ft) feet apart.
- 10.10.6 Handlers will enter the ring with their dogs on leash and line up in catalogue order along one side of the ring at least 2.44 m (8 ft) apart, where the judge indicates. Handlers will place their armbands, weighted with leashes behind the dogs.

10.10.8 The judge shall take a position in the ring where both the dogs and handlers can be observed but must be at least 2.44 m (8 ft) feet from any person. One minute after giving the order to "Leave your dogs," the judge will order the handlers to return promptly to their dogs, each walking around behind his own dog to the heel position. The dogs should not move from the sitting position until the judge says "Exercise finished."

11. NOVICE INTERMEDIATE CLASS

Changes to Rally Protocols

- The chair or table where the leash and other equipment is to be placed should be located at a convenient place determined by the judge but can be located in the ring or if not appropriate, just outside of the ring such that the handler can obtain the item without leaving the ring
 - If a chair or table or any other surface is used to hold leashes, dumbbells, gloves or any other equipment owned by the handler, that surface must be sanitized immediately after use. Paper can be placed on the surface if sanitizing is not done but that paper must be removed immediately after use, disposed of appropriately and replaced ready for the next exhibitor
 - In the Rally Advanced Class, the handler can put the leash in their pocket or hang it around the neck as in the Pre-Novice recall
 - The exhibitor may either leave the dog on a sit stay or heel with the dog to the location of the chair to both obtain and return their leash and articles used during the exercises.
- 4.3.2 The formula for the preparation of the judging schedule shall be based on the judging of a maximum of 10 dogs per hour. A 10 –minute walkthrough for each class level must be included in the scheduled judging times and walk-through's may be extended by the judge if required. (A & B classes of each level judged by the same judge may be combined for walk throughs.) Walk through's will be limited to 5 exhibitors at a time who must observe 6' social distancing. If a large class is scheduled, judges will allow an additional 10minute walkthrough every two hours for the next block of dogs to be judged in the class.
