The Rally Novice A Class. The A stream is for the handler who is an inexperienced beginner – who has never titled a dog in any sport. They have not instructed or assisted with dog training classes in any sport. In effect, this is the first time they have worked a dog towards a title. Once the handler has obtained their RN title, they may continue on to the Advanced A stream with the same dog. There is no A or B stream in Excellent or Versatility. When a competitor has attained their first Advanced A title, they are considered “experienced” and must compete in the B stream with any other dogs they handle.

A handler must own the dog entered, or be a member of the owner(s) household or immediate family to compete in Novice A.

A person may enter more than one dog in this class. A dog completing the Rally Novice (RN) title, may continue to compete in this class for practice purposes. “For Exhibition Only” (FEO) Dogs competing under FEO are not eligible for placements in the class.

Move Ups: Will be permitted providing the Trial Secretary is informed in writing at least one (1) week prior to this event. Same day move-ups will be permitted, please note it is the handler’s responsibility to inform the Trial Secretary before their next event.
