JUDGE'S COMMENTS

Arlene Lehmann

Arlene was born and raised in Toronto, Canada and after a delightful but uneventful childhood (without animals) she completed a degree in Radio & Television Arts at Ryerson University, and life began for real. Arlene spent twenty years in the stimulating environment of television production and post production. At the same time, she and her husband Eric also pursued a love of horses which resulted in Cherry Hill Arabians, dedicated to breeding Straight Egyptian Arabian horses. Cherry Hill Arabians was home to a herd of thirty horses and Eric and Arlene traveled to horse shows across North America, Europe and the Middle East, where twice they purchased horses to bring home to the breeding program. In the early eighties the first Giant Schnauzer came to reside at Cherry Hill, but the passion for the sport of agility was not born until the third Giant arrived, a female who really needed a job. Training and competing with Habiba (Beloved in Arabic) started a new career for Arlene competing with both Giants and Miniature Schnauzers. Some twelve years ago the experience was wonderfully enhanced with the privilege of becoming an Agility judge.

Arlene would like to thank her mother and father, who she loves and misses, and who's "no dog" policy must have fueled this fire.

Danielle LeVangie

In 1995 I became involved in CKC events with a Dalmatian named Beau. In 1996 my foundation bitch Darby joined us and I was hooked on dog sports. I've competed in conformation, obedience, agility, flyball, rally, field trials, scent hurdling, dock jumping, Dalmatian road trials and produced many generations of champion Dalmatians and Weimaraners. A NSDTR, Jet, is my current canine companion in agility, obedience, rally & musical freestyle. Since 2004 I have put on more agility trials than I can count as Performance Dogs Canada and I have been a CKC agility judge since 2005. I have served on the executive of CKC breed clubs, travelled to Austria as the treasurer of the CAT (Canadian Agility Team) and developed and implemented the first CKC team Canada fundraiser trial with Linda Barton & Angela Adams. I also travelled as a supporter to the Czech Republic and continue to support Agility Team Canada through the Red Barn, my dog sport facility in Barrie, ON. It now gives me great joy to participate with my children Jason and Breen and step-daughters Katy (and Brigie our kennel help/distraction) who are fortunate to be running friends' dogs. Thank you so much for inviting me to judge at these CKC ATC Fundraiser Trials. Good luck to everyone and especially ATC in Italy this year!

BITCHES IN SEASON

Bitches in season may not compete. When a bitch comes into season after the entry has closed, a Veterinarian's certificate verifying the bitch was in season within the 10-day period preceding the trial must reach the secretary on or before the start of the trial. A full refund of entry fees and listing fees will be given.
