JUDGES

CONFORMATION - NATIONAL:

Molly Rule-Steele.....Lot 740 Centaur Road, Hamilton Valley NSW 2641 Australia

My association with Sighthounds began in the mids 70s. My first show dog was an Afghan hound. We bred some very successful Afghans during my early days of exhibiting. One dog in particular Grand Ch Taejaan The Flamingo Kid went on to win 70 Best In Shows.

I have owned and bred Afghans, Salukis and currently breed and show successfully Siberian Huskies. The whippets joined our family in the late 80s. Our whippet journey has taken us to heights that we are extremely proud of. In total we have won 35 Whippet Specialty Best In Show awards, and countless All Breeds BIS awards, including winning BIS on 5 occasions at our prestigious Royal All Breeds shows with records entries.

I have had the privilege to judge at some of the most prestigious shows abroad. Thank you for the privilege to judge your National Specialty. Nothing compares to judging the breed so close to my heart.

CONFORMATION - REGIONAL:

David Samuelson.....1645 300th Street Way, Cannon Falls, MN 55009 USA

David's introduction to the sport of purebred dogs began in 1982 with the purchase of his first Whippet, that summer his family attended a Whippet race meet. IT WAS THRILLING!

David loved the athleticism of the dogs and the excitement of the races. It was incredible watching the whippets perform the job they were breed to do. In conjunction with the race meet a fun match was held and he was encouraged to show his Whippet in the match. Being a complete novice, he hadn't a clue how to show a dog. After a crash course in handling, he ventured into the ring and won Best in Match. He was hooked!

In the years that followed Dashing Whippets began. Together with his wife, Gina, they have had great success with the ancestors of their first Whippet. Their Whippets compete in the show ring; at lure coursing and racing field trials and most importantly they have also proven themselves as producers. Having the good fortune of having the top producing Whippet dam in the country for the year 2000.

In recent years we have had the pleasure of a wonderful friendship with Debbie Butt and Amanda Giles of Sporting Fields. Debbie and Amanda have graciously shared many of their finest Whippets with us and we are truly grateful. This partnership has resulted in five individual Best in Show winners, a National Specialty Best of Breed winner, the number one Whippet female for 2018 and National Specialty BOS winner. As well as the top producing bitch of the decade (2010-2020). Additionally, we share an interest in Border Collies and the Berger Picard.

David believes it is important that we give back to the sport we love. Locally David serves as the regional Show Chair for the American Whippet Club North Central Region Specialty. At the All-Breed level he is a Director of the St. Croix Valley Kennel Club and serves as the All-Breed Show Chair. Nationally David is the Past President of the American Whippet Club and the current AWC Judges Education Coordinator.

SWEEPSTAKES & JUNIOR HANDLING:

Robynne Spencer.....Australia

Thank you for inviting me to judge at this very auspicious Whippet National Show – I am very much looking forward to this appointment. My Dog Life started firstly with English Cocker Spaniels as a young girl– my first showing female retired on two challenges. The competition was fierce and we competed at our very best, considering the inexperience that we had. I continued to show and breed Cocker Spaniels, and then went forward to gain my Gundog Judging Licence. My interest in different breeds was tempted from Judging, and I am always grateful to my mentors that fuel the fire and enthusiasm to continue to learn and understand. In the 1990’s I ventured into Whippets, the breed I currently own, and have been fortunate to have been started with a solid and generous foundation in the breed with dogs from the very successful

Taejaan Whippets from Molly Rule-Steele. I have successfully shown my Whippets to Champions and last year bred my first Whippet litter under my prefix Beaulorien My love of the breed has also found myself as Secretary of the Whippet Association of Victoria and each September the Club run’s the two largest Whippet Shows in Australia. In , August 2022, I finally reached my All Breeds Judging Status. I have judged extensively throughout Australia, and in New Zealand, South Africa and the United Kingdom.
