AM CAN CH Peppercreek's In the Company O' Shamans
"Tuggan"

January 21, 1998-May 24, 2010

At 8 weeks of age "Tuggan", from the Gaelic language meaning "to retrieve", arrived as the consummate exuberant Golden Retriever puppy, and as a confident, already self-trained, show dog! For the next 12 years, he never changed! His performance in the show ring was always steady, occasionally rambunctious, but never disappointing, and as a result he obtained his titles quickly. His years as a veteran were even more gratifying, as he seemingly never aged. He won Best Veteran in sweepstakes at several Canadian All Breed shows, but perhaps most memorable was his Award of Merit and Best Veteran title at the Golden Retriever Club of Canada, at the Sporting Dog Spectacular in July 2007. His contentment with life was contagious, and to this day his gift of broad smiles and laughter remains. We are delighted to remember him with this trophy and to share a bit of his story with his friends north of the border.
