A tribute to the late Maude Bicknell

A long-time friend of the ODKC, Maude Bicknell passed away on May 8, 2017. She will be sadly missed. The following is printed with Donna Jenkins' permission from the BLOG Dog Shows Owner/Handler View, Tuesday, June 11, 2013

Maude Bicknell

She puts the BEST in Show

Maude is a very familiar face in Ontario. You hardly go to a show that you won't see her. Maude got started in conformation in 1974 when she bought her first Siberian Husky bitch. She bought a male Siberian that finished in two weekends and also went Top Siberian.

That was Imasibe's Storm Warning, Call name Stormy. Maude did a bit of handling, but Jo Griffith mainly showed Maude's dogs to their championships and beyond.

Maude also had Norwegian Elk Hounds and most will recall Kobanko's Chase Manhattan and Care Bear from Barb Inniss. Chase was an Canadian/Bermuda/ American Champion.

As impressive as Maude's Elk Hounds and Siberians were, she is just as well known for her work around the show rings.

About 15 years ago, Hilda Depew contacted Maude about setting up and cleaning up for shows. Maude makes sure that everything is ready to go for the show to start and she keeps a vigilant eye on the condition of the show site all weekend. Maude provides much of the show equipment and on occasions rents some of the equipment out to kennel clubs.

When I asked Maude what keeps her interested in dogs, she said that she likes the people. She enjoys working with the Kennel Clubs to put on the best show possible. She stated that she always does her best, or she won't do the job.

Maude would agree that she is a woman of very few words. She can be a bit crusty and she runs a tight ship. But, Maude is the woman that does everything possible to get lost items back to their owners. She has been known to change flat tires while the car owner is inside showing dogs. Maude gives advice to Newbie RV owners that show up without enough hose, electrical cord or the proper electrical plug. She has been known to have extra and to loan it out, plus give instructions on what to have, where to buy it and how to use it.

How many in Ontario know that years ago, exhibitors were not allowed to leave their dogs in the arenas overnight? Well, you can thank Maude for changing that rule. She started allowing dogs to spend the night in the arena, but to be certain every dog was safe and cared for, she would spend the night in the arena with them. She would bring a cot and find an out-of-the-way spot to sleep for the weekend.

Maude makes sure that the show site stays clean. She sanitizes the rings at the end of the day and keeps the areas ringside swept and clean. When you hear "Clean up Ring 1", Maude has made sure that it gets cleaned up and that the Mop and Bucket with disinfectant are nearby. One of Maude's pet peeves about Exhibitors are the people that do not clean up their Set Up area. She says bring a broom with you and sweep up the hair and trash and properly dispose of it. If you don't have a broom, ask her to borrow one. Scoop your Poop! She said, it's just plain rude to expect someone else to pick up your dog's poop. Better not let her catch you not Pooper Scooping. She says that Exhibitors should encourage each other and show good sportsmanship.

Maude will allow exhibitors that would like to practice in the ring after the show to use the rings, but she says that the exhibitor should be respectful enough to clean up if their dog has an accident. She's not there to clean up the ring twice.

Maude's view on dog shows now versus years ago is that there is too much back biting and too much gossip. She said it used to be more fun and people were nice whether they won or lost. She worries about the cost of showing dogs now. Everything is so expensive, she knows a lot of people can't afford to show any more.

Maude is a heart of gold under that crusty exterior. She would help anyone that has a need. I shudder to think what will happen when Maude decides its time to retire. There will never be anyone as great as Maude. Perhaps if we all keep our Set Ups clean, we follow proper show etiquette and we let Maude know how much we all love and respect her, she will keep our shows running for many, many years to come. Maude is one of those people that hasn't got enough recognition over the years for her contributions to the Dog Fancy. Stop and think what it would be like without her.

The list of people that love Maude is vast. Thank you so very much from our entire Dog Show Community for your many years of hard work and dedication

Thanks so much to Jo Anne Griffith for providing the show photos to me to use in this article. Much appreciated.
