C.K.C. Canine Good Neighbour Test
Hosted By: Northern Lights Prairie Region GSD Club

FRIDAY, JUNE 3

“This CKC program identifies and rewards responsible and caring owners and their canine partners! The purpose of the CGN program test is to ensure that our dogs are accepted as valued members of the community and can be counted on to present good manners at home, in public places and in the presence of other dogs. The program was created to assist canine owners in combating anti-dog sentiment and to enhance community awareness of responsible dog ownership and the benefits associated with dog ownership.” (Taken from the Canine Good Neighbour Program Participant Handbook, available from the CKC by calling the order desk at 416-675-5511 or www.ckc.ca)

This test is not a competition calling for precision performance by the handler and dog. Rather, it assesses the handler and dog’s relationship together with the handler’s ability to control the dog. We recommend that you read the CGN Participant Handbook so that you will be familiar with what you and your dog will be required to do.

ENTRY FEES: $30.00 per dog (this includes the $10.00 CKC fee for CGN Certification)
 Entries at this pre-entry price of $30.00 will close May 17, 2016. (If space available, some entries will be taken after this date or at the show for a fee of $35.00 per dog.)

PLEASE NOTE: Dogs will be tested in order that their entries are received, however flexibility in scheduling will be made for those showing in the Friday Conformation, Obedience or Rally rings.

WE ARE ACCEPTING MIXED BREEDS IN THESE TRIALS

Introducing Our Judges

JUDITH A. BROWN – I have been involved in the sport of pure-bred dogs since 1970. In that time, I have bred many Champions and Obedience titled dogs.

I served for twenty years on the Board of the Doberman Pinscher Club of America as President, Vice President, Treasurer, Recording Secretary and Director, as well as chairing numerous committees. I am the proud recipient of the DPCA Lifetime Achievement Award, the Pat Doniere “Good Guy” award and the AKC Good Sportsmanship award.

I am approved to judge the Sporting Group, the Working Group, the Herding Group, Dachshunds, Portuguese Podengo Pequeno, Whippets, Dalmations, all Obedience classes and all Rally classes, as well as Junior Showmanship and Best in Show. I have judged in Argentina, Australia, China, Canada, Russia, Mexico, Venezuela, Puerto Rico, El Salvador, soon in Japan and in nearly every U.S. State including Hawaii and Alaska.

I live with my husband, Charlie, my 95 year old mother, 2 elderly Doberman bitches, one wonderful male puppy and two crazy tough tomcats.

I love judging in Canada – thank you for having me!

KAREN DOYLE – My life in dog shows began in the early 70’s when, after an extended holiday in Europe, we brought back with us an Afghan hound puppy. This got me into showing dogs and it was at a dog show that I first saw a Saluki. It was love at first sight. I bought a Champion Specialty winning bitch from California, and she went on to produce a great line of Salukis for me. In 1999 I acquired my first American Staffordshire Terrier. I have been breeding and showing both breeds since then.

Since 2009 I have been living primarily in Mexico, near Guadalajara, the second largest city in Mexico. I have been judging in Mexico on a regular basis, where I can do all breeds, plus Best in Show.

We lived in Edmonton in the early 80’s where my youngest son was born. I am looking forward to revisiting and remembering the good years we spent there. And I will certainly enjoy my judging assignment. Good luck to you all.

CAROL GRAY – I have been associated with purebred dogs in Canada since 1965. I was a Great Dane breeder for over 30 years. My kennel name since 1978 has been Thunderally. I have been a Bull Terrier and Miniature Bull Terrier fancier since 1997. Thunderally is recognized throughout North America, the UK, Australia and Europe for Bull Terriers of quality and exceptional temperament. I stand firmly opposed to any form of Breed Specific Legislation anywhere in the world. I am actively involved in BT and MBT Rescue in a North American network as co-chair of the Bull Budds of Ontario Rescue. I am licensed by the CKC to judge Bull Terriers and Miniature Bull Terriers. I am a Bull Terrier Club of America accredited ROM Judge and can award ROM points at any level anywhere in the world. I am also licensed by the CKC in fifteen other Terrier Breeds for Conformation All Breed Championship shows and have a permit to judge the balance of this group in Canada. I have judged Bull Terriers and Miniature Bull Terriers as a breeder judge at Championship All Breed Shows across Canada, America, Australia and in the UK. I am a member of the Canadian Dog Judges Association and can be found listed as a judge on their website. In 2009, I judged the BTFA Bull Terrier & Miniature Bull Terrier Boosters at the Seaway Kennel Club Championship Show in Niagara Falls. In 2010 I judged the inaugural Canadian National Miniature Bull Terrier Specialty at the St. Catharines Kennel Club in Ontario. In 2011 I judged the BT & MBT Specialties at the Northern Alberta Canine Association in Edmonton. In 2012 I judged the BTCA Champagne Regional Specialty in Decatur, Illinois and the Bull Terrier Club of Wales BT Open Show in Cardiff, Wales. In 2013 my focus was to obtain my Canadian Terrier Group accreditation. I traveled from coast to coast judging four major all-breed championship shows in that regard. I was honoured to be selected to the Panel of Judges for the 2013 CKC Show of Shows event in Ottawa. In 2014 I judged three BTCA BT Specialties (ROM events) at Texas Gulf Coast (Houston), Canfield in Ohio and Decatur in Alabama. In all of these events I also judged part of the Terrier Group. In April 2015 I judged a BT and MBT ROM Specialty in Sydney, NSW, Australia and have been accredited by the ANKC.

I served the Bull Terrier Fanciers Association in Canada for over ten years in many executive committee positions including Show Chair of the Bronze Trophy Show. In the Niagara area, I am a member of both the Seaway Kennel Club and the St. Catharines Kennel Club. Internationally, I can usually be found at the Trophy Shows in Coventry, UK and the Dutch International Championships in Lieden, NL each year.

DR. STEVEN L. KEATING, Ph.D – is an independent Human Resource and Medical Care Consultant in Dallas, Texas. He has over 40 years of experience as an administrator and Human Resource Specialist with expertise in customer-focused satisfaction, employee relations, organization design and development, risk management, medical-vocational case management, employee assistance, and training and development initiatives. In addition, he is a retired adjunct professor of business and management classes at the university level in Dallas, TX.

Dr. Steve Keating (SUTTON PLACE PEKINGESE) has been involved in dogs his entire life and in the Pekingese breed for over forty years. Over the years, Steve has been very fortunate to enjoy many successes in his life. One success, which he has mutually shared with his life partner Don Sutton, included breeding and owning one of the most wonderful breed of dogs – the Pekingese. Over the years, while actively breeding through 1992 they had the privilege of owning and handling to title 36 Pekingese champions, of which 24 of those were OWNER, BREEDER and HANDLED to title. Of great special joy and happiness has been the thrill and honor of owning and handling English, American, and International Champion – Rosayleen “The Gaffer” at Sun Salve, bred by Mrs. Eileen Newman and handled in England to 14 Championship Certificates by Mr. Terry Nethercott of Sun-Salve fame of London, England.

As an American Kennel Club (AKC) judge, Dr. Keating is currently approved for five plus groups – the Sporting Group, Working Group, Toy Group, Non-Sporting Group, Herding Group, four Hound breeds and several Terrier breeds as well as Junior Showmanship and Best-In-Show.

CARL LENTZ – we started with Bouvier des Flandres and quickly changed to Belgian Tervurens with the arrival of our first one 30 years ago. The latest is 18 months old and she is the 10th one to share our home. Currently we have four dogs. The first one we had was my first UD dog, both in the US and Canada. My wife and I have had 5 American Champions, 1 UDX, 5 UD's, 3 CDX's and a CD. The youngest dog has not been shown when this is written, but will be before I judge at these trials. I have been an AKC obedience and rally judge for 17 years and have judged in Canada for the past 7 years. I am looking forward to judging for the Northern Alberta Canine Association and the Belgian Shepherd Dog Club of Canada.

DIANA MacKENZIE – all my life I can remember having a dog in the house. In 1978 I got my first German Shepherd Dog, Max, and fell in love with the breed and discovered dog training. Even though he was not registered I trained him through to the Utility level within the club. Since Max, all my dogs have been registered purebred German Shepherd Dogs.

I joined the Hamilton Dog Obedience Club in 1979, became a life member in 1999, and continue to train and teach with them. I was fortunate to belong to a club with many obedience judges as members, the late Howard Ward and Freda Walls among them, who became good friends and mentors that encouraged and helped me to become an obedience trial judge. I earned my CKC obedience trial judges license in 2002 and started judging in the U.S. in 2008. I have been a CKC member since 1994 and currently serve the club as the Zone 7 Obedience Representative.

My first official OTCH was Icicle's Kieferhaus Falco. My next was MOTCH Eves This Ones For You "Stryder". Over his career Stryder earned #1 GSD in obedience in Canada in both 2008 and 2009, was GSDCC Inc. National Specialty Obedience Victor both those years and in 2009 also earned #7 on the top 10

JACQUELINE L. STACY – of Chapel Hill, NC began exhibiting dogs in 1958. Her father, a German Shepherd dog fancier, allowed her to pick the breed of her choice. Mrs. Stacy chose Pomeranians and bred over 50 Champions. Mrs. Stacy has also been a breeder/exhibitor of Maltese, Skye Terriers and Affenpinschers. Under the Tamarin, Reg'd prefix, Mrs. Stacy and her husband Terry have produced over 100 Champions, eleven National Specialty winners, 9 all-breed Best in Show winners, the top winning American bred Affen in Breed History and the #1 Toy Dog in 2008. She has been the President of the Affenpinscher club of America, Inc.

As a licensed professional handler by the AKC, Mrs. Stacy was best known for success in the Toy and Non-Sporting Groups. She is well-known for having shown the Maltese, Ch. Keoli's Small Kraft Warning to 1st in the Toy Group at the AKC Centennial show in 1984 and in 1987 she was Kennel Review's top female Professional Handler.

Mrs. Stacy judged the 2013 Pomeranian National Specialty and has judged major shows throughout the U.S including Westminster and AKC Eukanuba. In addition she has enjoyed assignments in Japan, Argentina, Mexico, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand and Taiwan.

Mrs. Stacy has been a member of the American Pomeranian Club for better than 30 years and has served on their board as a Director, Treasurer and Standard revision committee member and judges mentor. She has been a member of the American Maltese Association for more than 25 years and judged their 2008 National Specialty. Mrs. Stacy is approved to judge all Toy, Non-Sporting, Herding, Hound breeds, all Terrier breeds, American Cocker, English Cocker, English springers, English Setters, Labrador Retrievers, Golden Retrievers, Miscellaneous, Junior Showmanship and Best in Show.

Her husband, W. Terry Stacy, is also a multiple group judge allowing them to enjoy the judging experience together.

W. TERRY STACY – purchased an American Cocker Spaniel in 1952 and first began showing as a Junior Handler. He bred his first Cocker Champions in 1955 which led to numerous other Champions. After an education at Marietta College he became Kennel Manager for the Downsbraugh Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. William Brainard. Here he worked with Smooth Fox Terriers, Welsh Terriers, Greyhounds and Labradors. A successful career of 15 years as a Professional Handler followed. He finished titles on breeds in each of the six groups then recognized by the American Kennel Club as well as winning many Best In Show and Group awards.

Terry Stacy then began a career as a Dog Show Superintendent for MBF Dog Shows. After nearly three years he was hired by the American Kennel Club and began another 15 year career as Vice President of Dog Events and later he was elected Senior Vice President until he retired in 1995. Some of his accomplishments were founding the Judges Institute, completing the breed video program and reformatting the breed standards. In 1994 he was named Dogdom's Man of The Year. Stacy has been President, Show Chairman, and held other offices in several All-Breed and National Breed Clubs.

As a judge of 5 Groups, he has judged shows throughout the world including Canada, Japan, Mexico, Thailand, Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, Switzerland, Sweden, Belgium, Netherlands and Taiwan. In the United States he has judged many prestigious shows such as Westminster, AKC Eukanuba, Morris and Essex and the American Spaniel Club.

Currently Mr. Stacy resides in Chapel Hill, NC with his wife Jackie and their small kennel of Affenpinschers. Their Tamarin Affens have produced National Specialty winners as well as nine All-Breed Best in Show winners, including the top winning American-bred one in breed history. Altogether, Tamarin Affens have won well over 100 Best in Shows.

Terry Stacy currently judges All Sporting, all Hound, all Terrier, all Toy, 21 Working breeds, Working Group and Poodles.

VICKIE UMPLEBY – my passion for show dogs started as a junior handler in 1969 showing American Cocker Spaniels. I started breeding them in 1980 under the Nonnies prefix adding English Cockers in 1997. I have bred and owned about 85 Champions in these breeds including several nationally ranked, Best in Show and Best In Specialty winners. Two of my English cockers are also BIS winners in the USA with 2 winners of Best of Breed at the prestigious American Spaniel Club show and a Westminster Best of Breed winner.

In 2010 one of my homebred English Cockers was #1 in the breed in the USA and his littermate was #1 in Canada. Many Cockers of my breeding have been top winning performance dogs. Bulldogs also share a special place in my heart and my home, having bred and owned several nice champions.

I started judging in 2002 and am currently licensed for Groups 1,2,3,5 and 6 and on permit for the Terrier Group.

Away from the dog show scene, my greatest loves are my family including my husband, two children and a grandson. I have worked as an airline customer service agent for the last 36 years. I am passionate about running and fitness, having run in about 30 races from 5k to full marathon in the last 5 years. My other hobbies include horses, raising exhibition poultry and gardening.

Complimentary Bottled Water at this Show is donated by Cathy French Photography Thank You!
